NOES: Councilmen, None. ABSENT: Councilmen, None.

On motion of Councilman Tolliver, Riggs second, the elections pay-roll amounting to $228.22 was approved for payment.

At this time, Mayor Rinn requested Councilman Weihe, now leaving his office after twenty years of serving therein to make the motion of adjournment. Councilman Weihe in appropriate words moved that adjournment now be had in respect to the memory of Mr John A. Henning, Superintendent of the City's Public Utilities since 1910 who passed away April 15, 1946 after devoting the major part of his life to this City's successful operation of its water and electric plants, and, in accordance with Mr Weihe's motion, adjournment was so had.

On adjournment of the former City Council as above set forth, Mr Weihe and Dr Coffield left the meeting after congratulating their successors and the City Clerk called the Council to order, administering the statutory oath of office to each of the Councilmen elect and calling for nominations for the office of Mayor.

Councilman Riggs, seconded by Councilman Rinn placed the name of Councilman Lytle before the Council. Councilman Lytle declined the nomination and offered the name of Councilman Rinn to succeed himself as Mayor, Councilman Tolliver seconded this motion urging Mr Rinn to continue in office. Mr Rinn also declined the nomination and Councilman Haskell nominated Councilman Tolliver, which nomination was seconded by Councilman Lytle. It was then moved by Councilman Tolliver, Lytle second, that Robert H. Rinn be elected Mayor by the unanimous vote of all members of the City Council. Mayor Rinn then accepted, requesting Councilman Tolliver to act at such times as he might request as Vice Mayor. Robert H. Rinn was then declared elected Mayor of the City of Lodi and adjournment was had on motion of Councilman Riggs.

Attest:
J. F. BLAKELEY, City Clerk.

The foregoing minutes of a meeting of the City Council of the City of Lodi held April 16, 1946 were read at a subsequent meeting of said City Council and approved without correction, said meeting being held April 17, 1946
